

SPRING 2010

Distance Learning Schedule

- IVN Interactive Video Network - These courses meet in the electronic classroom at either Bluefield, Beckley, or Lewisburg as scheduled. These are live with an instructor and are two-way audio and video. The strength of this medium is that faculty and students can be seen and heard simultaneously.
- IVNWE Interactive Video Network Web Enhanced- These courses have an on-line portion in conjunction with class time.
- ITV Instructional Television - These courses meet seven times at one of the three campus sites where they are scheduled. Requirements include attending class, watching videos on WSWP-TV Channel 9 as scheduled, reading the text and study guide, taking two exams and writing a paper.
- DL Asynchronous Distance Learning - These classes combine the modalities listed above to deliver instruction to students in their homes on their schedules. Usually, instruction is delivered via videotape, e-mail, WWW, text-study guide, and instructor-prepared study guides. Exams may be open book or proctored. Projects and papers are an integral part of the course content.
- WEB-DL Asynchronous Distance Learning Web Courses - These classes deliver instruction to students in their homes via the internet (100%) with set assignment schedules determined by the instructor. The student must be self-motivated and responsible for following the course syllabus on his/her own.
- WEB-CT WebCT stands for Web Course Tools. WebCT is a Learning Management System that enables courses to be delivered online through easy-to-use teaching and learning tools. The student must be self-motivated and responsible for following the course syllabus. WebCT is managed by the Instructional Technology Center.
- CART CART stands for Center for Applied Research & Technology. CART has developed an online interface for delivering instruction to Bluefield State College students. The student must also be self-motivated and responsible for following the course syllabus. CART is managed by CART in the School of Engineering Technology & Computer Science.
- WBCTH/
CARTH WEB-CT or CART classes that are partially on-line and partially in classroom
